LONG SHOTS AT HAWTHORNE.

As the Irishman would say it was "a soft day" at Hawthorne. The overcast sky of noon turned loose a mist, which, when the horses were at the post for the first race, changed to a drizzling rain. But the attendance was the average one and eighteen regular and two field book-makers were kept busy. The track was good, as the rain soaked it nicely without placing upon the surface a sheet of water. The wind freshened from a gentle breeze to one that would have sent a schooner yacht flying and umbrellas, overcoats and wraps were handy articles to have.

Ach delayed the start for the opening race but finally Thorpe came from behind with a bulge and Ach led the pack (after passing Native Son) to the last 150 yards, where he stopped dead, as did also Native Son who had tagged him all the way. Canace, in the middle of the bunch on the turn, was repeatedly bumped in the home stretch, but at the last eighth McNickle found a hole near the inside and dodging across the track he brought the favorite home the winner in a drive from Mr. Johnson, who was lucky to beat Doremus, a colt that made a strong bid in the last few strides.

Old Abuse, the winner of many consecutive races, acted upon the entries for the second race like a swan among a flock of ducks, and of the number of owners represented on the card eleven out of seventeen declined the issue of a battle with the crack sprinter of Foster Bros. The others might as well have kept their horses in the barn as far as the first money was concerned, as Abuse went to the front with a marvelous burst of speed as Bruen touched off his machine, and Mary Black, try as she would, could never catch him, although she finished close up and forced the favorite to mark 1:14 upon the watch. Still Abuse was hard held all the way by Bloss. Belle of Memphis finished well up to Mary Black after making the back stretch in the rear division. Sorrow also ran a good race, which can not be said of the others, who were beaten away off.

Again did Harry Kuhl, in a handicap having eight starters, furnish an adjustment of weights so equitable that the betting opened "3 to 1, take your pick." Dr. Sheppard, David Tenny and Cherry Leaf. Soon the first and last named went up, but "Lucky Alphonse" kept his hold and landed the post favorite at 13 to 5. Between the second and third races a heavy shower had rendered the track heavy, and the play on the handicap was general, the public settling on Her Favor, carrying the popular J. Reiff. An unfortunate start left Her Favor standing still at the post, much to the disgust of many high rollers, notably "Red Doc," who had $200 on John Rodegap's unlucky filly, Plantain at once went to the front and throughout led the band until the last few strides, where Candelaria came from the rear (Seaton, "Virginia" Bradley's stable boy, on Plantain probably thought he had the race won and was not watching the rail, along which J. McDonald brought the winner and so got "nipped"), and was first past the judges by a head only. The murmuring in the grand stand, occasioned by the accident to Her Favor, precluded any idea of a general interest in even so fine a finish, but the contest was worth going miles to see. Dr. Sheppard and David Tenny were closely behind Plantain until the homestretch was made, where the Doctor cried "Peccavi," and Cherry Leaf took his place. The favorite and the last named horse were on nearly even terms with Plantain at the final sixteenth, but both here cracked, and Bradley's long shot was finishing by himself when Candelaria came up. Candelaria was behind the bunch with his head high in air, and only Parole d'Or (who never had a chance) farther back, as the half mile ground was passed. J. McDonald rode a great race on the recent purchase of "Alex" Covington, who by this "coup" shows that a former jockey may be a good horseman.

The one and one-quarter miles dash was the "dump" of the meeting, it being won by Governor Sheehan who went to the post at 13 to 1; (it was September 13, by the way) while "up and down the valley" came the outsiders Connie Lee for place and Pete Kitchen to show. Morte Fouse, the second choice, ran fourth while Teutonna, the favorite, was beaten a sixteenth. Collins had gone to the lead as the barrier arose with Pete Kitchen second; these horses being clear of the bunch at the judges' stand. The start had been a good one for all but Sutton, and why should not an Irishman's horse meet with ill luck when posted as his colors are "Eschscholtzia-white cap"? Collins threatened up the backstretch to finish alone, but on the upper turn Connie Lee "got him" and Dr. Rowell's well backed gelding stopped to a walk. Governor Sheehan now moved up from the rear and Connie Lee's lead was quickly reduced. Governor Sheehan had the race won at the sixteenth inside the straight, from which point he galloped home the easiest of winners; all behind him finishing Indian file.

The sky was clearing in the west and the drizzle had ceased as the dozen "hounds" left the post abreast for the fifth race. Sydney Paget's "sky blue-brown cap" showed to the front for the first time in Chicago and his horse Ruskin led all the way and won as he pleased. Canova and the "backed up" favorite, Marcato, had a tight time of it for the place, Marcato securing the second money. The first three had for the last three-eighths been many lengths ahead of the bunch led by King's Highway. The latter was passed at the finish by Moch, the others beaten off; Revenge Dare up at the eighth post.

Another Waterloo came for the speculator when Barabbas led all the way in the last race, and Calchas beat the favorite, Monador, for the place. The latter had been heavily backed by the public, but it is doubtful whether the Dunne following lost on the filly by Troubadour out of Mona, as smart men would naturally stay off at so short a price as the 7 to 5 offered. Monador bucked like a broncho at the post, and ineffectually tried to kick the horses hear her. She and Willie Howard (strongly backed) got off right behind Barabbas and until close home the only contender in the race was Calchas. Etta P., another filly to carry considerable wise money, pulled up in the rear, with Willie Howard, Teutons and Stuttgart. All others were reasonably close on the end.

The judges questioned Fremont Sloan as to the wonderful improvement of Ruskin and the trainer explained that at the previous start the jockey had been hit in the eye by a clod of mud and so forced to pull up.

Charley Thorpe leaves for California to-day to ride one of Burns & Waterhouse's entry in the California Futurity, to be run at Sacramento during the fall meeting.

T. E. Barrett's fast horse Bing Binger went lame yesterday morning, necessitating his being scratched in the handicap.

Secretary Charles F. Price, of the New Louisville Jockey Club, was a visitor at Hawthorne yesterday.

Winner—Ch. f. by Creighton—Ne lie Bell. Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; the next five were driving also. It was a peculiarly run race. The first four at the finish seemed to be hopelessly beaten at the head of the stretch. The bunch in front, though, seemed to stop at about the same time and below the eighth pole there was a general change of positions. McNickle, on Canace, skinned the rails at the head of the stretch and saved a lot of ground, otherwise she could not have won. Mr. Johnson, after a lot of bumping and interference, came out of the bunch like rain from the clouds and was closing fast at the finish. Doremus, on the outside, was also closing strong. Ach is a coward. He was well in motion when the barrier went up and always had clear sailing. At the head of the stretch he seemed to be galloping. Native Son and Pat Cleburne both stopped very badly. Red Pirate ran more than a fair race. Cora Havill II was always pocketed. Scratched—Oneita, 115; Gold Runner, 115; Obstinate Simon, 115. Canace, place, even. Mr. Johnson, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Doremus, show, 3 to 2.

Time, 1:24, 2:41, 3:6, 4:8, 1:02, 1:14. Winner—B. h. by Plevna—Abukru. Post 7 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly; second and third under keen pressure. Abuse merely breezed all the way. He was much the best and the price against him a royal one. He showed his high order of speed by outrunning Mary Black the first part of it. The latter ran an honest race but with weight up does not seem to have a possible chance to beat Abuse. Belle of Memphis was worsted a lot at the start. As the race was run and the amount of ground this filly made up, it looks as though she surely would have beaten Mary Black and given Abuse a stout argument. This is a good filly and deserves attention from now on in any company. The race was always between the first three. Scratched—Flora Louise, 98; David, 104; Hohenzollern, 107; Timemaker, 107; Silver Set, 104; St. Simmermon, 101; Verify, 98; Bliss Rucker, 106; Little Alarm, 98; Marzella, 98; May W., 104; Alleviate, 103. Time, 2:51, 5:04, 1:16, 1:43, 1:50. Winner—B. c. by Midlothian—Cosette. Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third driving also. Candelaria was well ridden and ran a corking good race. McDonald took the short route and came with a rush through the stretch. The boy's finish was powerful and deserves mention. Plantain ran a much better race than he did his last out. He was allowed to go out and race in front, and almost lasted long enough. Had Seaton hugged the rail swinging into the stretch Candelaria could not have gotten through and the Bradley colt would have won. Thorpe, on David Tenny, also made a mistake by coming wide into the stretch. The latter, though, stopped badly under the weight. The track was against Cherry Leaf. He does his best racing when the going is hard. Dr. Sheppard seemed to stop with his mouth wide open. Dare II. showed a flash of speed, but stopped badly.

Scratched—Storm King, 108; The Devil, 103; Bing Binger, 90. Overweights—Parole d'Or, 24 pounds. Candelaria, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Plantain, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. David Tenny, show, 1 to 2.

FITZGERALD TRIES TO RESIGN.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Directly after the decision of the Junior Champion Stakes today Starter Fitzgerald tendered his resignation. A delay of an hour and a half had disagreeably marked the race, and the western crack, W. Overton, had been left at the post. An hour's delay had also been a feature of a previous race. The stewards, after deliberation, refused to accept the resignation and directed Starter Fitzgerald to resume the use of the starting gate, if he chose to do so, and to use such other means in starting as his judgment might dictate, tending to secure more effective action in dispatching fields from the post.

PROSPECTS AT HARLEM.

Harlem's next meeting of two weeks promises to be replete with racing of more than ordinary interest. The stables at the track are full of good horses in good condition, some of the latest arrivals being of sufficient quality to render their accession a matter for congratulation. The stake events to be decided are:

September 19 (opening day).—Austin Stakes, for 3-year-olds and upwards, selling, $1,000 added. Seven-eighths of a mile.

September 24.—Garfield Stakes, for 2-year-olds, selling, $750 added. Five and one-half furlongs.

September 28.—Forward Stakes, for 2-year-olds, $1,000 added. Seven-eighths of a mile.

October 18, the first day of the peace jubilee celebration, the Columbia Stakes, 2 1/8 miles, $1,500 added, will be run. It will be an event of unusual interest. At least half a dozen of the eligibles are being pointed for the long race.

Starters for the Austin Stakes must be named by 10:30 a. m. next Saturday, and all so named are liable for starting fee. An entry clerk will be at Hawthorne Saturday morning to take entries for Monday's Harlem races.

BROOKLYN FORM.

GRAVESEND, L. I., September 13.—The form of Wednesday's Gravesend fields is:

First Race—Gaze, Lady Lindsay, Frances Booker.

track and ran a fair race. It was a bad lot though and that accounts for it. Morte Fonse seems to have lost all form. Pete Kitchen is a plodder. He jogged along every quarter about alike. Collins, played for a good thing, had a lot of speed but was pumped out the first mile. Teutonna could not untrack herself in the mud. Evidently Sutton did not like the track. He was always outrun and his race below par.

Scratched—Sunny, 97; Necedah, 94.

Oveiwights—Morte Fonse, 1 pound; Governor Sheehan, 4.

Winner—B. g, by Buchanan—Bonnie Girl.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won eased up; second driving. It was a procession all the way. Ruskin was far the best and his price away out of line. He is a fairly good colt and was surely overlooked in the betting. Marcato tried hard all the way but could never get up. Canova was stopping badly at the end and in a few more strides Moch would have beaten him for third place. The latter was slow to begin but made up ground throughout and ran a good race. Star and Crescent stumbled and almost fell at the start. It was a cheap lot with little or no form to the race.

Scratched—Opponent, 109; Pug, 107; Beau Monde, 112; Exquisite, 109; San Saba R, 112. Ruskin, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Marcato, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Canova, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c, by Spendthrift—Intacta.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; the next four were driving just as hard. It was a tired lot at the finish. Barabbas staggered home. His race was a shocking form reversal. Hill got away in front and made every pole a winning one. Monadour made a strong bid on the turn for home, but tired badly the last eighth under punishment. He is only an ordinary youngster in the selling class. Calchas finished stout and true under punishment. He is very game. Old Fox got off badly and made up a lot of ground. His long suit is a heavy track. Etta P. quit to nothing.

Scratched—Flirtation, 115; Princess Murphy, 115; Rio Chico, 115; Schanken, 115; Miz-zoura, 118.

Winner—B. c. by Himyar—Santino.
Start good. Won easily. Himtine is a crack sprinter. Miss Miriam closed a big gap from a bad beginning. Lambent ran her race, which was a good one at the weights. Kenmore Queen was badly hemmed in on the rail the last eighth. She is very good, but is best over a longer route. Blarneystone is good, but is best in mud always. Bardella was shut off at the start and practically pocketed throughout. She ran impressively. Murillo had small chance with his jockey. Bendoran is faint-hearted and was overweighted.

Scratched—St. Callatine, 125; Banastar, 114; Leandro, 100; Don Blas, 98; Glonoine, 112.
Himtine, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Miss Miriam, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Lambent, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Hanover—Pomona.
Post one hour. Start straggling. Won driving. Handpress was lucky and benefited by the long delay at the post. Ben Ronald was poorly handled and was the best. Was pocketed the entire stretch and was buck-jumping. Merry Prince ran a fine game race but the delay at the post hurt him evidently and besides bad luck in the race contributed to his defeat. He is very good. Decanter closed strong. He is good. Gala Day's chances were affected by the delay. He is only a sprinter anyway. He quit badly the last quarter. Millstream was off badly. Twinkler was in trouble early and looks bad. Leedsville was exhausted at the post.

Scratched—Manassas, 101.
Handpress, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Ben Ronald, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Merry Prince, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Tremont—Armell.
Post 90 minutes. Start very bad. Armament is wonderfully improved. He was lucky throughout. Rhinelander closed like a whirlwind and was probably the best horse. He was shut off the first furlong. Ahom ran a good race. He looked likely to be the winner at the stretch turn, but lunged at the end. He is not the racehorse his private reputation has him credited with being. Frohsinn wants a long race to show his best. He was hustled off his feet and shut off and was generally unlucky. Alpen, off badly, ran well. Composer's wind is affected. Kinley Mack had no chance with his start. Jean Beraud showed speed, but the weight and delay helped to anchor him. The race tells little on true form.

Scratched—Rusher, 115; Sir Hubert, 115; Prestidigitatrice, 104.
Armament, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Rhinelander, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Ahom show, 7 to 5.

8424 FOURTH RACE—1 1-4 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. f. by Sir Modred—Sweet Briar.
Start fair. Won easily. Briar Sweet outclassed her field. She is a speed wonder. She got away poorly. Candleblack was saved the first part. His showing at the end is due to his having laid completely out of the race. He is, however, much improved and will do to follow. Alice Farley ran a great race. She was used up following Briar Sweet and Algol. Algol was the only horse that tried to follow Briar Sweet closely, and it made him dizzy. He was conceding much weight and his showing was truly remarkable. The Friar's speed is dulled by long distance racing. He could never get up.

Scratched—Bangle, 105; Twinkler, 105; Floronso, 105; Handball, 105; Sir Gawain, 105.
Briar Sweet, place, 1 to 3. Candleblack, place, 7 to 1; show, even. Alice Farley, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Gr. g. by Woodlands—Fannie Moore.
Start good. Won driving. Wood Pigeon trailed most of the route and closed very strong. He is certainly in remarkable form, but was lucky to win. Olindo was the best. His jockey nearly fell out of the saddle at the last jump and lost ten lengths through the mishap. Olindo was very unlucky. He is at his best. Royal Scarlet seemingly can't stay the full course. He is good but is best on a wet course.
Scratched—Trillion, 148; Kinvarra, 136; Iranian, 135.
